Hole-in-the-Wall River Ranch, located at Pointe Hilton Squaw Peak Resort, is complete with dive-in movies, “Family Fiesta Nights,” interactive poolside activities and buffets for children, teens, and adults. This year the resort will offer Coyote Camp’s™ Summer program, which includes swimming, arts-and-craft projects, kid-friendly cooking classes, and daily themes, such as Desert Friends and Arizona Day. The camp was created to be a convenient and affordable alternative to other summer children’s programs and offers both full and half days, along with lunch options.

Hole-in-the-Wall River Ranch is four-acres of entertainment for the entire family to enjoy and is distinguished by cascading waterfalls, a lazy river for tubing, a 130-foot waterslide, an active sport pool with water volleyball and basketball and a children’s pool. Other highlights include Rodeo Drive Retail Centre with the Cactus Rock Creamery for hot summer days, and Tombstone, a Western town for themed events.
